

RWH Myers Rule #1

simplicity rules

No Worries. We've just made tracking and accessing your business interruption claim, well, simple.

Business interruption claims management comes down to this: you control your claim, or it controls you. RWH Myers puts you in charge with our proprietary web-based MyClaim portal. It's customizable and secure, not to mention real-time, easy-to-access and simple-to-use. This flexible tool lets you share information with approved third parties, review payment status, schedule meetings, review timetables and much more. Put simply, with MyClaim you rule your claim, not the other way around.

We're working everyday to bring you new, innovative tools and services that help you withstand and understand the business interruption claim process. Visit rwhmyers.com to learn more and to register for a FREE MyClaim demonstration.
